June Update

Everything Blooms

June has brought warmer temps and a profusion of flowers; the nursery is buzzing and full of life! With Summer officially beginning with the solstice on June 20th, we're excited to help you get your landscapes in tip top shape!

This month in Nursery News, we are featuring pollinator and water-wise plants for your and your clients' native and drought-tolerant gardens. We are also featuring June Gardening Tips for San Jose in Gardening & Landscaping; as well as several exciting educational opportunities for landscapers and gardeners in our Online Events section.

We also wish to remind our wholesale customers to please send a licensed wholesaler to purchase at wholesale prices - see our note in the Nursery News section below. As always, thank you for your business and we wish you a happy and bountiful Summer!

With gratitude -

Thank you,

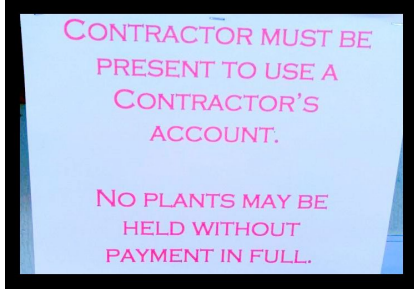

Jane
